World Marriage Day February 14th is a special day set apart for romance, hearts and flowers! St. Valentine Day! It is also a special day because it is World Marriage Day 2010. "Love One Another" takes on special meaning for married couples on this day when we remember our call to represent Christ's Love for the Church and to recall our wedding vows to our spouse.
Take a minute to thank God for your husband or wife and tell them what they mean to you. If you're not married, take a minute to thank the couples you know for the ways they witness Christ's Love to you. All, take a minute to pray for those who have suffered the loss of a spouse, whether by death or divorce. Together as a Church family let us be thankful for the love expressed in the sacramental marriages around us and celebrate!
